

Beautiful Bora Bora - Tahiti's Secret Treasure!

Dear Coastal Vacations,

A group of 8 of us decided to go to Bora Bora Tahiti this past summer, and we were pleasantly surprised at how much money we saved with our Platinum Coastal Vacations membership. Bora Bora is not a cheap place to visit... we found out really quick why it is a hot spot for celebrities and wealthy couples. We had heard it was one of the most breathtakingly beautiful places on earth, though, and we simply had to go!

First, we used the consolidators through the Coastal Agent program to book our international airfare... and we saved a ton! Then we used our membership to get special rates at both resorts we stayed at, saving us thousands of dollars. We ended up with a vacation that normally would have cost each of us over $12,000 for about $2,800 per person. You can't hardly go to Disney for $2,800... yet we went to Bora Bora for that! Plus, add that up for all 8 of us, and we saved over $72,000 for our little group. Thank you so much. I plan to tell everyone I know about the awesome savings with this package! I'll include the prices and breakdown, below:

	Regular Prices on the Internet:	With Coastal:	Total $$$ Saved/Night:	Grand Total Saved
Airfare from LAX to Tahiti	Expedia— $3509	Consolidator Rate— $928	—	$2581
1st Hotel: Bora Bora Nui	140,000 CFP/night rack rate (~ $17.19.89 USD)	21,000 CFP/night TAE rate (~ $258.05 USD)	119,000 CFP/night (~ $1462.04 USD)	X 4 nights = 476,000 CFP (~ $5846.39 USD)
2nd Hotel: Novotel Beach Resort	34,689 CFP / night rack rate (~ $426.89 USD)	6,964 CFP/night TA rate (~ $85.58 USD)	27,725 CFP/night (~ $340.54 USD)	X 5 nights = 138,625 CFP (~ $1702.72 USD)

We saved about $10,130 USD per person!
